"INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS STATEMENT ABOUT THE CONGRESS"

I hereby accept, declare and undertake that I will transfer the following rights below to Beykoz University in a way transferable to the third parties and will not claim any rights, costs and receivables due to the rights I have transferred:

I accept the paper I present during the congress, my photographs and videos to be recorded and for voice recordings and visuals to be used in the congress book, promotions, pictures and all other similar media within the scope of the "4th International Congress of Family, Youth and Child Friendly Tourism Business" to be held on 27-29 April 2022 by Beykoz University ("The University"); the determination, processing, reproduction of the versions of these sounds and images that have been modified, combined or separated by technical methods or subjected to other processes, and the authority to use all financial and moral rights arising or that may arise from them (the rights for broadcasting to the public including processing, reproduction, dissemination, representation, digital communication, publishing them for the public and making them public, the right to quote names, the right to ban any changes to the work, the rights of the owner of the work against the possessor and the owner); the right for making them available over digital environments including the internet and intranet and making them available for the public; the right to be recorded by devices known to on the date this document is signed or technical ways to be devised/invented/developed after the date this document is signed and used to carry audio and visuals across. Moreover, I accept to transfer the related rights granted by the Turkish Civil Code in that context along with the related regulations to the University in a way that can also be transferred to third parties exclusively, irrevocably, indefinitely and free of charge without any place, content, media, number, or other element limitations in the country or abroad.

Name -Surname: ....

Date: ../../....

Signature: